

Welcome to Bühler Philippines.

Your experienced partner. Bühler Philippines is your competent partner when it comes to machines, plants and services for grain and food processing as well as for producing high-quality materials. Bühler has been operating in the Philippines since 2004, and has gained in-depth knowledge of its customers' specific requirements in the region over the past years.

Strong local presence.

The Manila office takes care of the individual needs of all customers based in the Philippines. The strong local presence allows fast response to any kind of inquiry and enables short delivery times. Bühler Philippines coordinates all sales activities and handles the entire customer service in the Philippine region.

For individual solutions.

As the market leader, Bühler Philippines offers comprehensive solutions and systems to suit specific customer needs. Bühler Philippines provides the entire range of products and services of the Bühler Group, with its main activities being flour and feed milling technologies, processing of pasta, shipunloaders, optical sorting and rice milling as well as brewery solutions. Since customer needs vary greatly across the region, Bühler Philippines provides individually optimized solutions in order to guarantee maximum customer benefit.
